

Area Culture

Greensboro, NC is a place where the grass really is greener. With over 80 miles of trails in both natural and urban settings, 170 parks and gardens, and 27 golf courses, Greensboro offers many opportunities to soak in the natural world. Greensboro is also a place where the arts flourish, where sporting events are woven into the fiber of the community, and where state-of-the-art health care is accessible in every direction.

Spectator Sports

- Greensboro Coliseum is a state-of-the-art 23,000 seat sports and entertainment venue.
- Wyndham Championship on the PGA tour is played in August at Sedgefield Country Club in Greensboro and is the last stop before the four play-offs for the FedEx Cup.
- Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) men's and women's basketball tournaments
- Greensboro Grasshoppers Baseball has welcomed more than 1,250,000 fans through the gates of the state-of-the-art NewBridge Bank Park to date. The new baseball stadium has been an impetus for the renaissance of downtown Greensboro.

Recreation

- The NC Zoo is only a short drive from the heart of Greensboro. The nation's largest and finest walk-through natural-habitat zoo features more than 1,100 animals and 60,000 plants in its African and North American sections.
- Greensboro Natural Science Center is a state-of-the-art science destination and a nationally accredited zoological garden. It is one of the only facilities of its kind on the east coast.

Arts & Entertainment

- War Memorial Auditorium at the Greensboro Coliseum is home to the Best of Broadway Series that brings touring shows like Mama Mia, Rent, Cats, Phantom of the Opera and Shakespearean Festival right to your back door. The Best of Broadway Series presents several touring productions of well-known Broadway shows every year at the Greensboro Coliseum.
- The Eastern Music Festival is an internationally acclaimed month-long music festival in June of every year in Greensboro.
- Several theatres call Greensboro home including the Broach Theatre, the Carolina Theatre, and Triad Stage, a nationally recognized regional theatre.
- The International Civil Rights Center and Museum opened on the 50th Anniversary of the Greensboro Sit-ins. This museum provides a wonderful addition to our downtown offerings.
- The Greensboro Symphony Orchestra
- The North Carolina Shakespeare Festival
- The Greensboro Historical Museum
- The Greensboro Children's Museum